

Portrait of a Mother
with her Daughter
Riesener, Henri François, (1767 – 1828)
Finnish National Gallery
Finland, CCO

Co-financed by the Connecting Europe
Facility of the European Union

EUROPEANA IN YOUR CLASSROOM

Building 21st - century competences with digital cultural heritage

Massive Open Online Course

#EuropeanaMoooc

Why?

The Europeana in your classroom: building 21st-century competences with digital cultural heritage (rerun) MOOC will improve teacher's understanding of cultural heritage in order to efficiently integrate this topic into their lessons and practices, regardless of the subject they usually teach.

Course information

Start date: Monday, 13th January 2020

Duration: 6.5 weeks

Number of modules: 5 (one module per week) and 1.5 extra weeks at the end of the course in order for participants to submit their final course activity and review the activity of three of their peers.

Content

- Understand why it is important to use European cultural heritage in education.
- Learn how to use digital cultural records to teach their subjects.
- Learn how to navigate the Europeana Collections website.
- Explore and become familiarized with the various Europeana apps, tools and materials.
- Learn how to build learning activities using Europeana educational resources.

For whom?

Primary and secondary school teachers and teacher trainers. Professionals from cultural organizations such as museums, cultural centers, etc. are also welcome to follow the course.

Download the course description and dissemination package

Register for the course here

Facebook group: Europeana Education
www.europeana.eu

Co-financed by the Connecting Europe
Facility of the European Union